THE SEEDS THAT NEVER GROW.

I nearly hate the thought of spring, With its delightful sun,
For well I know the mail will bring A pack from Washington;
A little package, duly franked,
No postage stamps to show,
And it contains those little seeds—
The kind that never grow.

Our good and zealous Congressman, Remindful of our vote,
Upon his memorandum's page Puts down a little note,
And when the proper time arrives For us to wield the hoe,
He sendeth us the little seeds—
The ones that never grow.

There's squashes with enticing names, And cabbages, I wot,
So large that you would think that one Would shade a garden spot;
So with the pack from Washington You amble forth to sow,
With many a drop of sweat, the seeds—
That never care to grow.

How often have I plied the rake; How oft I've lounged about,
With eyes alert to catch the first Signs of the coming sprout;
In vain, in vain; my hopes have fled,
My heart has filled with woe,
Above the seeds from Washington—
The seeds that never grow.

But yet each year my hopes revive, As spring reclothes the tree,
And to my homestead surely comes The package marked "M. C.,"
And, foolish like, again I wield The sprinkler and the hoe,
And, like a nunny, plant the seeds—
That never care to grow.

LITTLE HENRY GORMAN.

Dies at the Home of His Grandfather, Mr. G. W. Oldham.

Yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock Henry Kinner Gorman, aged 14 months and 21 days, only son of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Gorman of Lexington, died at the residence of his grandfather, Mr. George W. Oldham, on West Fourth street.

The little fellow had been ill about two months, and his parents, who had spent the winter in the South, had come with him to Maysville to visit Mr. Oldham, hoping that the change would be beneficial to him, as he was not considered to be in a serious condition.

But in spite of loving care and the efforts of skillful physicians he grew worse and his soul took flight yesterday afternoon.

He was an unusually bright and beautiful child, the idol of his parents and much beloved by all who knew him. The bereaved parents have the heartfelt sympathy of their many friends.

The funeral will take place at St. Patrick's Church at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning with services by Father Ennis.

His body will rest in our beautiful city of the dead until fall, when it will be taken to Lexington to sleep beside its grandmother, Mrs. Nancy Gorman, of whom he was a living picture.

The good people of Ashland did themselves proud in entertaining the Delegates to the late Republican Convention. After the business session the visitors were treated to a delightful trolley ride to Catlettsburg, passing beautiful Clyffside Park, and on returning were shown through the big steel plant—beside which, for fiery grandeur, Dante's "Inferno" pales into utter insignificance.

The entertainment given by the Physical Culture Class of Hayswood in the First Presbyterian Church Tuesday evening, May 8th, will commence promptly at 7:45. The drills given by the class will be interspersed by a vocal solo, a recitation by Miss Lida Rogers and an instrumental solo by Miss Jennie Moore. Music for the drills will be furnished by the Maysville Orchestra. Price of admission 15c. Tickets on sale at the Drugstore of Mr. J. C. Peor and Mr. J. J. Wood. A streetcar will be in waiting after the entertainment.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O., Sold by Druggists, 75c.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Don't despair because you have a weak constitution. The vitalizing principle of Herbine will assuredly strengthen it. In every drop of Herbine there is life. There is a stimulating, regenerating power unequalled in the whole range of medical preparations. Price, 50 cents. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

Compare it with other local papers, and then say, if you can, that THE LEDGER isn't the best, and that it doesn't give the most for the money. Can't you afford to have it left at your residence for a month? Mr. Hal Curran will be glad to book your order.

When the liver fails to secrete bile, the blood becomes loaded with bilious properties, the digestion becomes impaired and the bowels constipated. Herbine has a direct action on the liver and excretory organs, and a few doses will cure any case of biliousness. Price, 50 cents. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

TONIGHT IS THE NIGHT.

Welby, Pearl, Keys and Master Carroll are said to be the finest quartette of heel and toe exponents before the public. They dance every way and in all kinds of time and styles. Master Carroll, who is but seven years old, is the best boy dancer of the times. He divides honors with his older rivals. These wonderful dancers are one of the main features with the Al. G. Field Greater Minstrels. The management of the company seems to be of the opinion there is nothing too good for its patrons, and that there is plenty of it evidenced by the many meritorious acts and the great number of people who are engaged to appear in them. Success always attends the honest endeavors of those who not only strive for it, but merit it. At Washington Opera-house tonight. Secure your seats in advance at Nelson's.

MRS. E. C. CLEMENT.

Former Resident of This City Dies Wednesday in Missouri.

Mrs. Elizabeth C. Clement, wife of the late J. B. Clement, died at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday at her home at Hannibal, Mo.

Deceased was born in Bourbon county July 15th, 1815.

She came to Maysville at an early age, and resided here for many years.

She was a sister of Colonel Thomas A. Respass, who, since the death of Mrs. Clement, is now the only surviving member of the family.

Mr. Clement was for many years engaged in the merchant tailoring business in this city, removing in 1849 to California. His death occurred in 1887.

Two children—a son, William, and a daughter, Lois,—survive.

Does It Pay To Buy Cheap?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Hoeft's Cure for Croup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but always inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. For sale by J. C. Peor.

Question Answered.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart Failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by J. C. Peor.
